"Hut when the operator shoves the cord tips into a hole and hears a 'click, click, she knows an operator at one of the other boards has a sul scriber talking on that line, and theu she says; 'Can't get them now: line is busy,' This is whet makes a great many people mad. They think 'centraj' means she is too busy to attend to them, and they put it down to a a novel or a sweethear, every time.

The greatest trouble the subscribe has is usually in getting at the ground in the ground range from his 'phone. Four inches is the right distance. We had a man call in here the other day that his phone was out of order. The chief operator a-ked him how far he was standing from it, and he

"The subscribers are almost without exception very nice and courteons to us, and I think they would be even less apt to be vexed or misunderstand if they would come up to the exchange and see how things work." DIRECT LINE TO NIAGARA PALLS
